

Aluminium Training Knife Technical File

Description and Sizes Available

Blunt aluminium training knife, life size replica of a kitchen knife. Made with a black plastic handle, this is a tool which adds an invaluable dimension when teaching self-defence weapon skills 230mm long, 6mm thick aluminium full tang construction

Size: 23cm x 6mm

Weight approx: 114g

Colours Available: Metallic blade with Black Handle

Material Specifications: Aluminium & Plastic

Cleaning Instructions

Wipe down with antibacterial wipes.

Before Use

Risk assessments should be conducted by the trainer to identify the level of training/instruction conducted is appropriate, and that any piece of equipment that is used for that training is suitable and all safe guards are in place.

WARNING, Instructors & students, check this equipment before every use DO NOT use if, the item worn or damaged, ALWAYS, ensure correct personal protective equipment is used in conjunction with this item, and correct instruction and training procedures followed. This item is not designed to make the user impervious to injury. Serious injury can occur while training with this equipment. After use, store in a clean dry room away from damp & cold conditions. Regular cleaning & condition assessments are essential.